◆ Please Conserve Water

The northeast section of the country is experiencing a drought. We are eleven to twelve inches below normal rainfall for the year. Parts of several states have had water restrictions imposed. While we have not been placed under a formal restriction in this area of the state, all members of the Seminary community are asked to conserve water as much as possible. Most of us know the ways this can be done. It just takes common sense and a commitment to good stewardship.

Please let the Facilities Office know of any leaking faucets, dripping showers, etc., so we can fix them as quickly as possible. Also, the grounds crew will restrict watering to that which is necessary to keep plants from dying.

Thank you for your understanding and help.

◆ Family of Origin Exploration Group
Our family tree is like a "generational blueprint" that explains a great deal about who we are and why we do what we do. Much can be gained from exploring the events, secrets, patterns, and legacies of our extended family. Until we gain perspective on our own backgrounds, we often "leave home" geographically, but not emotionally.

The Seminary's pastoral therapist, Nancy Schongalla-Bowman, will facilitate a non-credit, second-semester group in which students will learn about family systems concepts through constructing their own genograms and addressing issues that emerge. Interested persons should contact Carol Belles in the Chapel Office and attend a meeting on Tuesday, December 5 in the chapel basement at 12:45 p.m. Feel free to bring a lunch.

Our family tree is like a "generational blueprint" that explains a great deal about who we are and why we do what we do. Much can be gained from exploring the events, secrets, patterns, and legacies of our extended family. Until we gain perspective on our own backgrounds, we often "leave home" geographically, but not emotionally.

The Seminary's pastoral therapist, Nancy Schongalla-Bowman, will facilitate a non-credit, second-semester group in which students will learn about family systems concepts through constructing their own genograms and addressing issues that emerge. Interested persons should contact Carol Belles in the Chapel Office and attend a meeting on Tuesday, December 5 in the chapel basement at 12:45 p.m. Feel free to bring a lunch.

PRINCETON
SEMINARY

An Open Letter of Thanks To the Seminary

Throughout my wife's sudden illness and death, God's grace was manifested to me and my family through the pastoral ministry of the entire Seminary community. Truly, we were showered with an abundance of love and genuine concern from numerous persons throughout the administration, the faculty, the staff and the student body. The many hospital visitations, supportive letters and cards, telephone calls, floral tributes, dishes of food and warm embraces manifested a generosity of spirit that greatly strengthened us as we sorrowfully attended Shirley as she walked through the valley of the shadow death.

Adrian Backus, Tim Richards and Amy Barrett delivered breakfast regularly during my family's stay with us. Mary and John McKey helped us by caring for our dogs. Other students babysat our grand-children, prepared, delivered and served food and constantly offered their services in doing other helpful things. Members of the faculty and staff sent treasured expressions of deep sympathy to us. Professor Jane Dempsey Douglass and her husband provided housing for members of our family as did the Center for Continuing Education. Mr. Wayne Whitelock and his staff produced an excellent video-tape of the funeral service. Pastor Michael Livingston visited Shirley at the hospital almost daily. Finally, the President, Vice-President, the Dean and the entire senior adminstration went the extra mile in their expressions of love and concern. In brief, I shall never be able to specify the countless number of kindnesses shown me and my family by this community during this sad period in our lives. Suffice it say, however, I am proud to be a part of this community and I rejoice in its many redemptive qualities, not least of which being its great capacity to enter into solidarity with those who are in pain. Please accept my heartfelt thanks for the love and good-will that has emanated to us from all of you.

Yours in the service of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ,

Peter J. Paris
